Prelude: O God Beyond All Praising

Call To Worship: "Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth; break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises. Sing to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the sound of a psalm, with trumpets and the sound of a horn, shout joyfully before the Lord, the King."

Psalm 98:4-6

Pastoral Invocation:

Congregational Reading: Trinity Hymnal page 625, selection 25; Psalm 48

Opening Hymn: #28 "Hast Thou Not Known, Hast Thou Not Heard"

Older Testament Reading: 1 Kings 8:62-66

Congregational Response: "You are good, and do good; Teach me Your statutes."

Psalm 119:68

Congregational Confession of Sin: O Lord of our praise, we adore You for Your wonder working power. We magnify You for Your saving work toward the sons of men. We bow before the God, our Creator. Forgive us for our sin and aid us as we seek to walk in Jesus' footsteps. For we ask it in Jesus' name and for His sake we pray. Amen. (Let us confess our sins to the Lord in a moment of silent confession)

Words of Consolation

Hymn: #408 "In Thy Wrath and Hot Displeasure"

Congregational Reading: Irish Articles of Faith

Of the Creation and Government of All Things

We believe, that of angels, some continued in that holy state wherein they were created, and are by God's grace forever established therein; others fell from the same, and are reserved in chains of darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

Congregational Reading: Westminster Larger Catechism

Question 194: What do we pray for in the sixth petition?

Answer: In the sixth petition, (which is, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,) acknowledging, that the most wise, righteous, and gracious God, for divers holy and just ends, may so order things, that we may be assaulted, foiled, and for a time led captive by temptations; that Satan, the world, and the flesh, are ready powerfully to draw us aside, and ensnare us; and that we, even after the pardon of our sins, by reason of our corruption, weakness, and want of watchfulness, are not only subject to be tempted, and forward to expose ourselves unto temptations, but also of ourselves unable and unwilling to resist them, to recover out of them, and to improve them; and worthy to be left under the power of them: we pray, that God would so overrule the world and all in it, subdue the flesh, and restrain Satan, order all things, bestow and bless all means of grace, and quicken us to watchfulness in the use of them, that we and all his people may by his providence be kept from being tempted to sin; or, if tempted, that by his Spirit we may be powerfully supported and enabled to stand in the hour of temptation; or when fallen, raised again and recovered out of it, and have a sanctified use and improvement thereof: that our sanctification and salvation may be perfected, Satan trodden under our feet, and we fully freed from sin, temptation, and all evil, forever.

Newer Testament Reading: 1 John 2:22-29

Congregational Response: It is good for me that I have been afflicted, That I may learn Your statutes."
Psalm 119:71
