Prelude: O God Beyond All Praising

Call To Worship: "The Lord Remembered His holy promise, and Abraham His servant. He brought out His people with joy, His chosen ones with gladness. He gave them the lands of the Gentiles, and they inherited the labor of the nations, that they might observe His statutes and keep His laws.

Praise the Lord."

Psalm 105:42-45

Congregational Confession of Sin: Oh Lord, our Deliverer, when Your people fall into various troubles, they must wait for You to bring them out of it whether in life You make an end of their troubles temporally, or in death You make an end of them eternally. Yet we confess that we often look for escape without first looking to You. Where we have forsaken the God of our salvation, we pray that You would forgive us, and enable us to trust You more fully. For we ask it in Jesus' name. Amen. (Let us confess our sins to the Lord in a moment of silent confession)

Of The Civil Magistrate:

We believe that the supreme government of all estates within the said realms and dominions, in all cases, as well ecclesiastical as temporal, doth of right appertain to the King's highness. Neither do we give unto him hereby the administration of the Word and Sacraments, or the power of the Keys, but that prerogative only which we see to have been always given unto all godly princes in holy Scripture by God himself; that is, that he should contain all estates and degree committed to his charge by God, whether they be ecclesiastical or civil, within their duty, and restrain the stubborn and evildoers with the power of the civil sword.

Congregational Reading: Westminster Larger Catechism

Question 37: How did Christ, being the Son of God, become man?

Answer: Christ the Son of God became man, by taking to himself a true body, and a reasonable soul, being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost in the womb of the virgin Mary, of her substance, and born of her, yet without sin.

Newer Testament Reading: Revelation 9:13-21

Congregational Response: I will never forget Your precepts, For by them You have given me life.
