Congregational Response: "Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me". "Ps 35:1

Congregational Confession of Sin "O Lord, as sin is the chief evil that plagues the church, remission of sin is the chief cure of all of our trouble. And so, we ask of You once again, that You would remember Your covenant of Redemption and forgive us our sins and deliver us from its evil. For we ask it in Jesus' Name. Amen." (Let us confess our sins to the Lord in a moment of silent confession).

Silent Confession

Pastoral Confession
Words of Consolation

Hymn of Consolation: #194 "Sing My Tongue How Glorious"

Congregational Reading: The Irish Articles of Faith

Of God's eternal decree, and Predestination.

We believe that the cause moving God to predestinate unto life, is not the foreseeing of faith, or perseverance, or good works, or of anything which is in the person predestinated, but only the good pleasure of God himself. For all things being ordained for the manifestation of his glory, and his glory being to appear both in the works of his Mercy and of his Justice; it seemed good to his heavenly wisdom to choose out a certain number towards whom he would extend his undeserved mercy, leaving the rest to be spectacles of his justice.

Congregational Reading: Westminster Larger Catechism

Question 190: What do we pray for in the first petition?

Answer: In the first petition (which is, Hallowed be thy name,) acknowledging the utter inability and indisposition that is in ourselves and all men to honor God aright, we pray, that God would by his grace enable and incline us and others to know, to acknowledge, and highly to esteem him, his titles, attributes, ordinances, word, works, and whatsoever he is pleased to make himself known by; and to glorify him in thought, word, and deed: that he would prevent and remove atheism, ignorance, idolatry, profaneness, and: whatsoever is dishonorable to him; and, by his overruling providence, direct and dispose of all things to his own glory.

Newer Testament Reading: Galatians 2:1-10
Congregational Response: “my tongue shall declare Your righteousness and Your praise all day long.” Ps 35:28
